

What You Need to Know: Michigan Momnibus Bill Package

Crafted by women of color, for women of color, this community-driven legislation addresses the systemic inequities that have long harmed Black and Brown mothers and families.

Improve
integrity,
accountability,
and equity in Michigan's maternal health care system

Ensure all families
experience
safe, empowering
pregnancies
and births

Address
racial and ethnic disparities in maternal and infant health outcomes

Expand access to midwives, doulas, and culturally competent
care

Black and Brown women in Michigan are 3-4x more likely to die from pregnancy
related causes than white women.

The Momnibus package centers justice, dignity, and community leadership to close this gap. It builds on existing grassroots efforts and ensures policy reflects the lived experiences of those most impacted.
